Rosati Windows manufactures and installs windows for residents in Columbus, Ohio. The company produces wooden and vinyl replacement windows and doors, including sliding glass doors, bay windows, and glider windows. Other products include interior and exterior doors and garage doors. Rosati produces windows backed by the industry's strongest warranty. The company is also well-versed in entry door construction. If your home is overdue for a new door, Rosati Windows can help you design your custom entry door that fits perfectly with the rest of your home's aesthetic. Ask Rosati's team about standard doors, or opt for sliding glass or storm doors. Mike Rosati and the Rosati Windows Foundation contribute to local non-profit organizations and charities, including the Ohio Crime Victim Justice Center, a non-profit providing free legal representation to survivors of crime, Prescription for Good Health, which helps Columbus area residents in need obtain prescription medications, Ohio Cancer Research, Buckeye Ranch, Recreation Unlimited, and Westerville South High School Athletic Department.
